PROGRAM: Citizenship Washington Focus (CWF) is a group activity with a week-long program. Ten to fifteen states participate each week in group discussions, tours to points of interest, visits with senators and congressmen, listening to guest speakers, and exchanging program ideas and information with fellow delegates from across the United States.

Please use previous CWF delegates in promoting this program countywide.

POTENTIAL FUNDERS:

Counties should consider contacting community groups, such as Ruritan clubs, for funding assistance as many community organizations have an interest and mission in promoting citizenship education among youths. Kiwanis and Rotary clubs are other possible sources of funds at the county level.
